

AMT Toolkit and Services Price List

January 2013

AMT Toolkit	Description	Price
AMT Toolkit with unlimited license and node locked software	AMT Toolkit includes two AMU units (1A and 5A), a laptop computer, three multi-ratio current transformers, and cables. There is no limitation on report generated by using AMT software.	€20,000 per unit unlimited license
AMT Toolkit with per report license and node lock software	AMT Toolkit can be purchased with half price with per report licensing. Each report will be charged at €65 report license.	€10,000 per unit €65 per report license
AMT Toolkit Customer Support and Software Update Fee	Customer support by phone and email and software updates are included. AMT Remote Reporting Service for 20 equipment is also included.	€3,000 per year

AMT Services	Description	Price
AMT Audit Service	Artesis' field application engineers collect data from equipment, generate instant condition assessment report using portable AMT Toolkit, and deliver the set of reports. An engineer can test approximately 5-7 equipment per day.	€1,500 per day Travel and lodging expenses will be added. (allows for travelling time)
AMT Remote Reporting Service	Artesis data analysis engineers get database from customer and prepare a report for equipment indicating existing electrical and mechanical faults, energy efficiency information and potential saving opportunities. The data can be collected using AMT Toolkit or permanently installed MCM units.	€150 per equipment
Condition Monitoring Service	Artesis provides this service for the customers who signs a two years of condition assessment service with Artesis. This service includes following items. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MCM unit • Artesis Enterprise Software • Condition assessment report every three months during service period • Condition assessment report per request (please note that this service will be charged as extra €150 per equipment) 	€1,300 per unit for one year period